

“BY HAND XVI”
QUILTERS UNLIMITED – CITY HALL EXHIBIT
JULY 14 – SEPTEMBER 1, 2010

GUIDELINES AND SCHEDULE

- Exhibit items must be made by members of Quilters Unlimited.
- Pieces shown in past City Hall exhibits are not eligible.
- City policy prohibits works containing nudity or religious subject matter.
- Entry form must have two (2) pictures of the entry attached.
- A hanging sleeve must be securely sewn on the back of entry, and a hanging rod with a screw eye at each end must be provided by the exhibitor.
- A label containing the piece title and exhibitor’s name must be sewn on the back or inside of each piece.
- Youth of Quilters Unlimited members may submit an entry in the show on a “space available” basis. Name of member and relationship to member must be on the entry form.
- The exhibit is open to photography and Quilters Unlimited or the Council on Culture and Arts may use the images of the entries at their discretion.
- All entries are covered by the City of Tallahassee insurance. All artists will be asked to substantiate declared value of work if a claim is made.
- By signing the entry form, the exhibitor agrees to abide by these guidelines and accepts the decisions made by Quilters Unlimited representatives, and the Council on Culture and Arts Staff in regards to placement of the entries in the exhibit.
- Entries may not be picked up before the exhibit closes.
