

Minutes
Quilters' Unlimited of Tallahassee
February 14, 2008

Meeting was called to order by Dorothy Barr at 7:00.

Membership: one new member and one guest

Show and Tell: Ten people showed their creations.

Workshops: We will have a pot luck dinner at the March meeting with the meeting starting at 6:00. Debbie Maddy will be the program for the evening. There are still openings for both Friday and Saturday workshops. Penny has copies of the supply list and Topi will post them on the website.

Block of the Month: There were 22 blocks for the drawing and two names were drawn – Pam Doffek and Gerry Soule.

Library: Sharon related the details of the audit and announced that there were 26 books missing. After further searching, Sharon and Marsha Walper found 2 of the missing books. Sharon asked that everyone look in their books for the 24 missing books. No questions will be asked – we just want the books back. A hasp lock was installed on the library cabinet and it will be locked except during the meeting.

Dorothy Barr announced that a distinguished quilter committee was being formed. She asked for nominations from the membership.

Barbara Hoagland announced that Diedre Sherer is having an exhibit at the Mary Brogan Museum and on Saturday, February 16 from 1:00 – 3:00 she will be giving a lecture on her art. This exhibit is sponsored by the Hospice House and will feature hospice related art.

There will no be a steering committee meeting in February.

Program: Linda O'Sullivan and Selena Foo demonstrated celtic knots and the various ways of making the bias strips. Dorothy Barr and Sharon Pollock demonstrated different ways to finish the ends of binding.
