

Quilter's Unlimited
Guild Meeting
May 13, 2010

The meeting was brought to order by the President at 7 pm.

Membership: There were 11 guests and 1 new member.

Block of the Month: 5 blocks were submitted and were won by Ellen Farriar.

Main door prize was donated by Frayed Edges Sit 'n Stitch Group and was won by Mona Snowden. Winners of the other door prizes were: Bob Rubanowics, Charlette Hughes, Carol Randell, Sue Skromnia and Maggie Winkler.

Shelley Bertels announced she is Chair of the nominating committee for officers next year and the other members are: Chary Root, Julie Love and Lillian Anthamantha.

Challenge quilt applications with photos are due at the July meeting, with the quilts due in September.

Silent auction items can be donated now.

Application forms for the Museum quilt show are now available and are due no later than July 25.

Sew for Hope has yo-yo kits available for their fund raising quilt.

2011 Opportunity quilt kits are available and are due back at the June meeting.

Karen Skilling needs help with taking photos for our website and she has stopped the gallery page as there have been no new entries.

Show & Tell: 18 members presented items featuring leaves and trees.

The meeting was adjourned.