

Tallahassee Quilter's Unlimited
Guild Meeting
November 8, 2007

7:00 Vicki Mildenberger called the meeting to order. She announced that the guild saved $800 by delivering the newsletters online instead of mailing. The Dec. guild meeting will be a pot luck dish supper and wrapped gift exchange.

Treasurer – Martha Mitchell – Budget is $10,005, we spent $8,933. We have $8,188 in CD and $6,009 in a savings and checking account.

Appreciation Gifts – Vicki Mildenberger

Joe Berkenshot for helping with the Quilt Show

Kris Hebert and Lynn Griffin were given tokens of appreciation for giving the guild wonderful programs.

Meredith Smith, Topi Henderson, Selena Foo, Martha Mitchell were all given plaques of appreciation from Vicki.

Gifts were given to the Officers and Chairs for 2007.

Vicki passed the torch to Dorothy Barr for president for 2008.

Dorothy Barr presented Vicki a thank you quilt top from the guild that 28 members made for her.

Vicki turned the meeting over to Dorothy Barr and introduced the new Steering Committee:

Membership – Michelle Hackmeyer

We had 3 visitors and 11 new members.

Show& Tell

12 quilts were shared. 51 neonatal quilts were donated. [400 is needed each year].

Committee Announcements –

Membership – Dues need to be paid now. Photos will be taken in December or email a photo.

Sheryl Willis – Healthy Start Coalition – 15 angel blocks were made for framing given to donors giving $1,00 or more [Wall of Donors]. A certificate was given to Quilters Unlimited with a thank you card.

Librarian – Sharon Pollock – 3 new books were purchased for the guild

The Steering Committee meeting will be November 29.

The December guild meeting will be at 6:00 p.m. Bring a fat quarter and “gift from the heart”. The program that night will be a Quilt Show wrap-up by Linda Dozier.
