QUILTERS UNLIMITED OF TALLAHASSEE

Volume 42, Issue 4

April 2025

Next Meeting: April 10, 2025, Temple Israel, 2215 Mahan Drive
Times: 6:00pm Social, 6:30pm Meeting

President's Message

Ahhh, doesn't April have that fresh Spring scent we all love, or if you just sneezed from pollen, maybe that you don't love? As we bask in the nice spring days this month, we also can celebrate our home planet (at least I hope it's your home planet 😊) with Earth Day and the wonderful trees that are producing that pollen in grand amounts with Arbor Day.

Quilters love to incorporate holidays or themes in their quilts. If you want to do a virtual quilt tour of the many ways quilters celebrate the Earth, check out the Quilting Daily's website on Earth Day quilts. <https://www.quiltingdaily.com/earth-day-art-quilts-for-the-love-of-gaia-exhibition/>

And if you aren't from Earth and are missing home or just a mere Earthling that dreams of exploring space, check out The Next Giant Leap website. The Kennedy Center recently held a block challenge for students and quilters across the US to create a quilt block to celebrate the Artemis campaign for NASA heading back to the Moon and then to Mars. One block from each state was selected from the student and quilter categories and two quilts were made and will be displayed in Washington, DC. This Earthling created a block that didn't get selected, but it was fun to challenge myself.

Photos of the quilts and blocks will be added to the site soon. <https://www.kennedy-center.org/whatson/explore-by-genre/exhibits/2024-2025/lunar-quilts/>

And speaking of challenges, don't forget our theme this year, A Walk in the Woods. This would be a great opportunity to quilt and celebrate Arbor Day. The old saying goes, "the best time to plant a tree was 20 years ago; the second best is today." I think this can apply to making quilts, so break out all your tree and woodland ideas and join in the fun.

Happy Quilting,
Kerry

Upcoming Programs

April 10th – Anjali Austin, retired FSU Professor of dance, will join us to discuss The Quilts of Mrs. Gussie Beatrice Arnold Hill. Austin is the caretaker of this collection and recently developed an exhibition of these treasured quilts at the FSU Museum of Fine Arts.

May 8th – Get ready to enjoy Pam & Lyn's Excellent Quilt Adventure. QU's very own Pam Doffek and Lyn Gearity will treat us to fascinating tales of their recent quilting adventure.

June 12th – Quilts of Valor Presentation – Join Quilters Unlimited in honoring and celebrating our veterans as they are awarded a Quilt of Valor.

Block of the Month 2025

Yeah! We have added another forty to our stash of strip blocks.

Hope you are enjoying making the purple ones for Big Bend Hospice for April (this is ongoing). See article for directions.

Now we head into the rest of the year using reds, whites and blues. Each and every month through October we will be making the blocks that will be used for Quilts of Valor and lap quilts for veterans.

Stripping is so easy that it is strange that some are making none. Why is that? Lack of fabric? We will give you some. Stripping is the name of fun!! How many can be made from now to October meeting?

Peggy Clark & Janet Taylor

2025 Opportunity Quilt Tickets Are Available!

Pick some up, sign out how many and bring back the stubs and money. Easy as we can make it!

Pic of "Arabella" is on the QU Website.

Bring a few dollars to buy tickets for the Opportunity Quilt, $5 for three tickets gets your name in a drawing for three more.

Peggy Clark & Janet Taylor

QU Library Inventory Reduction Sale

We will have another batch of books available for sale this month. $2 per book, cash only. These are books that were published between 1991 and 1999.

Michele Hackmeyer, QU Librarian

QU Welcome to Newcomers' Social

There will be a social at my home on Thursday, April 17th from 6:00 until 7:30. Anyone who is sort of new or very new is invited. It is a chance to ask and share in a slightly quieter atmosphere.

RSVP's are appreciated.

I am in the Directory. Light snacks and beverages will be provided.

Joy,

Ann Gaber, Welcome Chair

Challenge Quilt – A Walk in the Woods

Still plenty of time to join the quilt challenge!

Quilts due completed at the July meeting.

Contact me by email or at the meeting for rules.

I am also looking for someone willing to make 5 prize ribbons. Let me know if you're interested.

LeMoyne Gallery Shop

Quilters and Crafters, it is time to show off your creativity! We need 30 to 40 small items for the LeMoyne Gallery Shop. The sale of these items helps LeMoyne offset the cost of putting on our show. Plan to make one of a kind or maybe 2 or 3 of an item. The items do not have to be quilt related, if you make jewelry, do bead work, make cards, paint or make pottery, to name a few other crafts, those items will be appreciated also. Quilty items can include pin cushions, mug rugs, placemats, needle books, potholders, "quilted" cards, wallets, pouches, or small wall hanging.

Put your thinking cap on and create some lovely items for the LeMoyne Gallery Shop. I will be collecting items starting with the April meeting.

Thank You,

Linda Strait

MEMBERSHIP

April Membership News

Quilters Unlimited membership is doing well in 2025—we have sixteen new members so far, and 107 members from 2024 have renewed their membership by paying their $30 annual dues.

Just a reminder, you must be a current member to display your quilt(s) in the Lemoyne show this August. It is easy to make a dues payment through the website, by mail (Quilters Unlimited, PO Box 12181, Tallahassee, Florida 32317), or at a monthly guild meeting.

The 2025 directories are available to be picked up at guild meetings for current members.

Hope to see you at our April 10 meeting!

Ellen Fournier

Quilt of Valor Presentation

Cray J. Coppins, Jr. was awarded a Quilt of Valor in Tallahassee on February 21, 2025. Coppins served in the U.S. Marine Corps for two years exiting as an E-4. He later joined the U.S. Navy, served for 31 years and retired as a Captain in 2004. During his career he received numerous medals and awards for his outstanding work.

He is shown with his quilt which was made by Margaret P. and quilted by Wendy A.

Presented by Roberta Granville.

New Philanthropy Opportunity – Big Bend Hospice Quilted Squares Project

Introduction: The Meaning of Purple

Thank you for contributing your time, skill, and compassion to create quilted squares in purple, a color deeply significant in end-of-life care. In many healthcare settings, purple serves as a signal that a patient is nearing or has reached the end of their journey. The color purple represents spirituality, dignity, and peace, making it a meaningful choice to convey respect and honor for both patients and their loved ones during this sensitive time.

Linda O's Block for Hospice

Why Quilted Squares?

Your creations play a special role in bringing comfort to families facing the unexpected. When a loved one is nearing the end of life, it can be a challenging and unprepared-for experience, especially if they weren't initially receiving hospice care. Often, families find themselves in this situation, feeling overwhelmed and unready to say goodbye. By offering a quilted square, we aim to bring warmth and a sense of presence during these profound moments.

To ensure consistency, please follow these guidelines for creating the squares:

Quilted Squares Specifications: 6x6 inches – Soft purple fabrics

Quilted or patterned designs are welcome, but please ensure the fabric is soothing and respectful. Additional Touches are optional but feel free to add simple stitching to the quilted squares, such as a small heart or a word like "Hope" or "Love" in an unobtrusive, thoughtful way.

The Impact of Your Work

By contributing to this project, you're offering more than fabric and thread; you're creating tokens of peace and solace that provide tangible comfort during an intensely emotional time.

Other Ways to Help

You can also support Big Bend Hospice by giving gently used items to their Oak Tree Treasures Thrift Shop. The link to their website for additional information: Oak Tree Treasures | Big Bend Hospice. In addition, they need several quilt stands to display donated quilts.

Please contact Janet Taylor if you have any questions.

LAST CALL ... City Hall Show

Last call for applicants to upload their quilt photo for the City Hall Show. As of today, we have 19 quilts entered and we need at least 11 up to 17 more in large, medium and small sizes. The deadline is April 5.

The City Hall Show will take place June 4 - August 4, 2025. This is a "Free Theme" exhibition of approximately 30 quilts, large, medium, small. Quilts are your choice, one per person, with no restrictions on year made or previous showing. The online application "Submittable" is live. You may offer your quilt for sale. Quilt must have a sleeve, dowel, and hanging wire. Quilt submission will take place at the May 8 meeting, and one other time TBA.

Our City Hall reception will take place on Thursday, June 19, 6:00 - 7:30 pm.

Beautiful Quilt Kits for Sale at Bargain Prices to Help Support Philanthropic Efforts

Over the years many lovely quilt kits have been donated to Bits and Pieces to make quilts for Hospice and Sleep in Heavenly Peace. Unfortunately, some of the patterns are too complicated or too large to complete in a timely manner.

The kits are precut so you will be able to start sewing almost immediately. We do ask that you check to be sure everything you need is inside the bag so we can correct any shortages before you begin.

Kits will be available at QU meetings. Prices range for $40 to $70 based on the yardage included in the kit. All money gathered will go to buy needed supplies like batting or backing for compassion quilts in our community. This is a great opportunity to help provide warmth to those in need of comfort.

Jeanne Brenner

Hello and Thanks to everyone involved in individual and group philanthropy projects! We will be taking in quilts for Sleep in Heavenly Peace and for Big Bend Hospice at the next guild meeting as usual.

Sit-n-Stitch Groups

A "Sit-n-Stitch" is a group of quilters who meet regularly to work on service projects, learning and practicing quilting techniques, or working on members' individual projects. Some groups meet in members' homes on a rotating basis and others meet at specified locations. If you are interested in joining a sit-n-stitch group, please call Jeanne Brenner or call the group's contact person. Phone numbers are available to Guild members in the Quilters Unlimited Membership Directory. Members are encouraged to form new sit-n-stitch groups to match their quilting interests.
