President's Message

The Capital City Quilt Show is opening this Thursday, August 3rd. The amount of preparation and coordination to get to opening night is a huge undertaking of time and skills. I want to thank Betty Rinkel and Barbara Wiggins for the work they did as Chair and Co-Chair to bring this year's show together. Cheryl Willis and committee did a great job in securing items for the Silent Auction. The Silent Auction items are very popular with visitors and raise a good sum of money for the Guild.

On Sunday, July 23, the Guild had a New Member Social. We had 12 new members attend along with 12 Steering Committee members. We met for two hours and conversations continued throughout. We heard many funny stories told during the introductions. New members expressed a desire to get involved the Guild's activities.

Personally, I want to thank Linda Brooks and Pam Doffek for making the charming name tags for the new members. I really couldn't have done name tags without them so generously willing to help a friend.

I'm sure as I recognize individuals, I will miss people. I will try to get around before and after the meetings to thank you individually for your dedicated work.

Your President.....Peggy Allen

Steering Committee Meetings for 2017

September 12, 2017

November 21, 2017

Notice of Proposed Change to the Guild By-Laws

Article IV – Officers

Section 2. The officers shall be elected to serve for one year. No officer may hold the same office for more than three consecutive years.

Rationale: The addition of the words “more than” reflects the original intent of the drafters of this section of the By-Laws, and conforms them to existing understanding of the Steering Committee.

This change must be voted on by the members, and may be passed if two-thirds of the members present at the meeting approve the change. Voting will take place at the August meeting.

Replacement President-Elect

Kerry Cohen has volunteered to fill the position vacated by Denise Vinson. Kerry has served as an Officer and Chairperson in our Guild for several years, and previously was President of another Guild. Thank you so much, Kerry, for bringing your expertise to Quilters Unlimited.

Upcoming Programs -- by Barbara Wiggins

August's theme is Patriotic and Historic Quilts. We will be presenting at least one Quilt of Valor quilt, possibly more. For show and tell, let's feature your patriotic or historically themed quilts. Time permitting; I will talk a little bit about threads, what makes them different, why we use different threads, etc.

September we will be hosting a guest from Gainesville and hear about Seminole patchwork.

In October, Marsha Walper will tell us about perspective and dimension.

November brings us a real treat with a trunk show and talk by Mary Catherine Scott.

December is the time when we celebrate us. Details to follow.

Nominating Committee

The Committee is still seeking members interested in filling some 2018 Committee Chair positions. If you find yourself drawn to one of these positions, please contact either Shelley Bertels, Sue Skornia, Wendy Stone or Karen Skinner. The list of open positions starts on page 10. Do let us know if you would like to volunteer for one of the Chairpersons.

The Committee will introduce the proposed slate of Officers at the September meeting, and nominations from the floor may be made at this time. Final voting for the Officers (only) will occur at the October meeting. No voting on general Committee members is required.

Door Prizes – by Roberta Granville

Quilter's Treasure - by Linda Brooks

Continue to support the Guild by purchasing tickets for the new Quilter's Treasure. The next drawing will be during the September meeting. I will be collecting any contributions for future treasure baskets at the Guild Meeting. Thank you for your support and excitement.

The Quilter's Treasure will be on display during the social time (6:30-7:00) during each guild meeting. Come visit to see all the great treasures that could be yours. Tickets are $1 each or $5 for ten. What a bargain for such a wonderful basket of treasures. There will be a new basket of treasures each quarter. For the rest of this year drawings will be held during the guild meetings in the months of September and December. You do not need to be present to win, you just need to buy your tickets.

Tip: Use address labels to get your name on your tickets quickly. Please come by to see me and buy your tickets.

Capital City Quilt Show

Museum of Florida History, 500 S Bronough St, Tallahassee, FL 32399

Dates for the 35th Annual Capital City Quilt Show

- Closing date September 24
- Quilt pick up at museum September 30 (10:00 to noon)

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

Be sure to bring your calendars to our next meeting. There are dates and times needing to be filled in with workers at the Show. Everyone is encouraged to sign up for at least one time frame of two and a half hours. Is there a friend who wants to work with you? Double up with your friend, or maybe someone in the guild you might like to know better. There are lots of Saturday and Sunday times, and if you are not traveling Labor Day weekend, that weekend is wide open. So, be ready to sign up for at least one time frame.

Sentimental Journey Quilt Challenge 2017 -- by Linda Stright

A big thank you to all the quilters who participated in the Sentimental Journey Challenge! The theme, Sentimental Journey struck a chord with many of our quilters and got them thinking. It was so wonderful to read their stories and study their quilts. Some memories were of family history, visiting their grandparents when they were a child, memories of their childhood, tributes

*- first time Challenge entrants

Again, a great big thank you to all who participated and also a thank you to all those who purchased the rules. The more rules purchased, the bigger the monetary prizes.

Many thanks to my co-chair Hazel Walker for all her help and for making the beautiful prize ribbons. Thank you to Stephanie Guttman and Laura Keller for helping to count the votes. Be sure to visit the Museum of Florida History to see the QU quilt show and check out the Sentimental Journey Challenge quilts. The show runs from August 3rd to September 24th.

Museum of Florida History's 2nd Saturday Family Program

August 12, 11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

"Make a New Stitch"

Everyone is invited to join in!

Join the Museum of Florida History's Education team as they create a new quilt for Grandma's Attic. The activity will be located in the museum lobby. Children and families can create their own quilt block with markers and fabric blocks. Afterwards, they can assist with stitching the quilt blocks together. Everyone can experience how to create a simple quilt by hand through this activity.

Daily 'Quilt Quest' – Quilting Scavenger Hunt

'Quilt Quest' will be a daily activity at the quilt show. Museum guests can tour the show as they try to find the answers and clues to questions about techniques and patterns related to the theme Sentimental Journey. Can you find all the answers?

Every Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. – Quilt Show Spotlight Tours Spotlight Tours

Twice a day on Wednesdays, the Museum of Florida History will provide free Spotlight Tours of this year's Quilt Show and the history of quilting in Florida.

2017 Block of the Month -- by Wendy Stone and Dawn Griffin

The patriotic spirit seems to come alive in quilters every July. We collected 30 vibrant red, white and blue Sawtooth Star blocks. You will see the quilt top at the August meeting.

August – Polka Dot Bricks & Cobblestones

Will we have enough bricks & cobblestones to build a twin size quilt top? You still have time to make these quick and easy blocks and bring to the August meeting. Remember, polka dots only. Cut your 2 ½ inch strips to make this easy 6 ½ inch x 12 ½ inch brick block. This one is so quick that we ask you to make two of the 6 ½ inch x 6 ½ inch cobblestone blocks as well. Surely you have other polka dot scraps that could be used.

September – Garnet & Gold - FSU

September is just around the corner and FSU fans will be sporting their garnet and gold. Show your spirit with any 6 ½ inch or 12 ½ inch block using any combination of garnet, gold, black, white or an FSU novelty print. The technique is up to you. Perhaps an applique block featuring a football or spear? Maybe you can piece your favorite block. Visit our table for ideas!

Check the website for patterns/color instructions. If you do have internet access and need paper printed instructions, please contact Dawn or Wendy.

Bus Trip to Jacksonville Quilt Fest -- By Peggy Clark

Saturday, September 23rd

We will be going to Jacksonville to see the beautiful and one of a kind quilts. There is a great number of items to bid on at the silent auction and tickets to buy a chance on for a number of quilts and other treasures. You can eat your lunch in the show if you so desire. I can tell you from experience the coffee and desserts were excellent. You will not want to miss out. We need a certain number of people to ride the bus to warrant us to leave the driving to someone else. Bring a daughter, granddaughter, or best friend that is interested in quilting and $35 each to ride along. Treats and water will be provided on the journey along with "bus-door prizes". I really need the $$ before September 1st to be sure we have enough seats purchased.

Nominate a Guild Member for Volunteer of the Year Award!

It is time to recognize that outstanding quilter, who can always be counted on to help with the routine jobs in the guild as well as filling in when unexpected needs arise.

The Volunteer of the Year Award gives us a chance to say "Thank You" to a member for generously contributing time and expertise to Quilters Unlimited.

The brief nomination form needs a nominator and a co-nominator, so find a friend and complete one soon!

For a description of the award and a link to the nomination form, go to the guild web site and click on "Activities and Projects" at top of page, then click on "Awards" in drop-down menu.

<http://quilttallahassee.com/activities-and-projects/awards/>

The nomination form can be completed online or printed out and mailed to the committee chairperson. Nominators using online forms will receive an automatic confirmation in their email. Forms mailed in will receive a phone call or an email confirmation.

Nomination Forms Due by October 1

Contact Marsha Walper with questions about submitting nominations.

Class Fee: $30

Workshops -- Please contact Jeanne Brenner to register.

Kay Smith - Seminole Style Patchwork

Friday, September 15th and Saturday, September 16th; six-hour workshops, 10 am to 4 PM
Woodville Community Center

Cost: $35

Don't miss out on a great opportunity to learn new techniques, hone your strip-piecing skills and be with fellow guild members at one of the Seminole Style Patchwork classes offered on September 15 and 16 by Kay Smith from Ocala, Florida.

"I grew up in Miami in the northern part of Miami-Dade County. We visited the Seminole Indian village in Dania, FL and I was fascinated with the ladies that were making the patchwork. I would see the Seminole ladies at the grocery store dressed in their beautiful skirts.

I learned to sew at an early age and by Jr. High I made almost all of my clothes. I found a Seminole Patchwork book in the early 80's and tried it, but I was not too successful at that point. When I started quilting in 2002, I wanted to make wearable art but most patchwork was too large for my petite frame. That's when I got my Seminole Patchwork book out and tried it. A rotary ruler and cutter made a huge difference.

I have a number of tips and tricks to improve the accuracy of intricate piecing. These tips and tricks can be used for all types of piecing. I use Seminole Style Patchwork for wearable art, as trims on towels, tote bags, and clothing, and borders on quilts.

I call it Seminole Style Patchwork because the Seminoles only consider it Seminole Patchwork if it is made by a Seminole.

I have been teaching Seminole Style Piecing for over 8 years. It is techniques class. In a 6 hour class we can make 4 to 5 designs. The look of the designs will vary depending on the choice of fabric. The strips of patchwork completed in class will be about 12 inches. The quilter can add to the length at home. I provide a detailed handout."

Come learn about her experiences and see examples of her exquisite work at the guild meeting on Thursday, September 14.

To maximize the opportunity for member participation, the same workshop is being taught on both Friday and Saturday. Four or five 5 different beginning patterns will be taught.

Class fee is $35.

2017 Opportunity Quilt - by
Karen Kunz

The 2017 Opportunity Quilt is an oversized queen quilt, measuring 84" x 104". You have the opportunity to place this lovely quilt on your bed by getting a ticket at the suggested donation amount of $2.00 each or 3 tickets for $5.00.

Back to School Supplies Needed

Grace Mission is a local organization which serves and poor and underemployed with its facility located adjacent to the Frenchtown community. Several QU members are volunteers.

School Supplies are needed to prepare the kids for school. Donations of the listed items are appreciated.

Primary composition books (with space at top for pictures); enclosed pencil sharpeners; handheld erasers; markers; dry erase markers; colored pencils; headphones/ear plugs for computer lab; notebook dividers; small and large Post-it-Notes; pencil boxes and pouches; boys and girls backpacks

If you would like to make a donation, please bring items to the August QU meeting or email griffindd@aol.com for pickup. Perhaps you may come across some of these items while clearing out closets to escape this summer heat!

Thank you! Dawn Griffin, Grace Mission volunteer.

Newsletter Info

The deadline for newsletter submissions for the next issue is:

September 4th, 2017

Please submit materials to Karen Skinner via email at newsletter@quilttallahassee.com

Here are some Guidelines for articles:

- We prefer not to publish personal email addresses or phone number. We refer members to the Directory, instead.
- When submitting the information via e-mail, please place in the subject line "Month Newsletter" – "Subject of Article" (what the month your article refers to, and what is the subject of the article).
- Submit photos as an attachment, not embedded in the text (although you should have a note within the article where the photo should go -- I'll edit out the note and insert the photo). Regarding image files, please make these jpgs, and if possible, limit the file size to 500 kb or so.
- Articles must be submitted as a word-processing type document (e.g., Microsoft Word, or a TXT file, not PDF or Excel) or as text in an email.
- There is only one version of the Newsletter prepared, not one for Web-blasts and one for the Website.
- If you want the article/information in the website, it must be sent separately to Sue Isaac the Website Coordinator, at >> webcoord@quilttallahassee.com
- Regarding Classified Ads, see the additional information in that section. Your item will be posted for only one month per email submission. If you need to list it again, send another email to the Newsletter Editor.

Newsletter Mail-outs

To receive a mailed newsletter, you must provide the Newsletter Editor with a Self-Addressed Stamped Envelope (SASE) for every Newsletter you wish mailed to you.

The Newsletter editor requests that you provide enough envelopes to match the remainder of the Guild year (which ends in December). In January, assuming you are still a member, you would provide a new cycle of SASEs

. Please do not expect the Newsletter Editor to remind you when you are running out of submitted envelopes.

Are You Missing E-mail Blasts from the Guild?

We've learned that when some of the members have not received their "Blasts", their e-mail host frequently thinks the article is SPAM. Here are two possible fixes for the members:

1. Check your SPAM filter and mark the email as "not SPAM";
2. (BEST) Enter the name of the sender into your contacts list -- for the blasts, the sender is webmaster@quilttallahassee.com.

If you still are not getting notifications, e-mail the Email Coordinator, in care of the Newsletter Editor, at newsletter@quilttallahassee.com. The Email Coordinator helps the Webmaster keep an eye on the Mailchimp-based Blast system. Sometimes, we may have typed something in incorrectly into the system.

And always remember to let us know if your email address has changed.

Classified Ads -- Instructions

Only Guild Members can list items for sale or free-to-a-good-home.

Email your ad/notices to the Newsletter Editor (Karen Skinner) at newsletter@quilttallahassee.com. Briefly describe the item and asking price. If desired, attach one small picture in JPEG format -- it may or may not be included in the listing, depending on whether there are technical difficulties with "capturing and inserting". If possible, limit the file size of the jpegs to 500 kb or so. Include your name (and city if the item is bulky/large, and there may be special considerations for pick-up), but not an address.

Your item will be posted for only one month per email submission. If you need to list it again, send another email to the Newsletter Editor.
